LOCAL BREVITIES.

County Court next Monday.

Weather still mighty onartin.

No more frosts, but plenty of rain and wind.

Boys, did you see the big balloon go up last Monday?

The City Council meets in regular session on Monday June 11th.

All kinds of plain and fancy job work done at this office cheap for cash.

We return thanks to Miss Hattie Peck for a lovely bouquet—the finest of the season.

The Inspector of U. S. Land Offices was in Iron last week. Likewise a Post-Office inspector.

A picnic and festival at Iron Mountain for the benefit of the Catholic Church. Read the advertisement in this paper.

Mrs. W. G. Fairchild yesterday presented us with a magnolia bud, which will open out fully in a day or two. It is one of five sent from Texarkana.

To Geo. Schultz, Esq., we "owe one" for a bottle of Rhine wine (Deidesheimer), he presented us the other day. We drink his very good health.

The cattle-guards (so-called) on the railroad in this vicinity need looking after. In their present condition, their true appellation would be cattle-traps.

The Ironton House Saloon was burglarized Sunday night and the till robbed of six dollars. Nothing else was taken. The thief evidently believes only in "hard cash."

Charley Wheelahan presented us a box of very fine strawberries last Friday for which he has our thanks. Charley is selling this delicious fruit at the regular market price.

J. W. Speck, Esq., and another distinguished statesman—the latter from Washington City, we believe—went down to Marble Creek on a tour of inspection last Friday.

"Col." G. W. Hall's Great Show was in Ironton last Monday. It is a snide affair, and consists mainly of a miscegenated brass band, a learned goose, and a cage of monkeys.

Last week's frost was not so killing as it might have been. There is plenty of fruit left, while nearly all the corn will sprout again. Apples will not be plentiful however.

Some hungry thief last Saturday night entered Parson Wright's kitchen and stole the eatables intended to furnish forth the family's Sunday dinner. The theft was discovered only when the mistress of the house began preparations for that meal, and no clue to the burglar has as yet been obtained.

A wagon bridge across Stout's creek, between Ironton and Arcadia, is needed—and badly needed. The ford is miserably rough, and mighty uncertain in times of high water. Iron county is out of debt and amply able to begin bridging its streams. Safe bridges and good roads are evidences of civilization, and pay well for the money judiciously expended upon them.

Little Marie Rutschman celebrated her twelfth birthday last Friday. A children's party was given in honor of the event. During the day Miss Marie had no less than seven bouquets presented her. The editor was not forgotten 'mid the festivities, for with her own fair hands Miss Marie presented him with a big section of cake. May she live to celebrate her centennial.

The carpenter shop on Pilot Knob was burned down about 9 o'clock last Sunday night. It made a big blaze, and illuminated the streets of Ironton—a mile distant—like unto the light of a full moon. The loss involved was considerable, as the shop contained many valuable tools and appliances for car-building, etc. It is thought to have been the work of an incendiary.

The Pilot Knob School Board met on the 15th inst. and re-elected the present teachers in the public school for another period of ten months, at an advance of wages. They are as follows: F. C. Miller, Principal, Miss Tillie Schneider, Intermediate, and Mrs. F. C. Miller, Primary. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been chosen for a third year in Pilot Knob school, and Miss Schneider in her second, which indicates that they have done good service, or that the people of Pilot Knob are not chronic grumblers.

James Baird, of Arcadia, had a horse killed on the railroad Sunday before last. The horse had gotten inside the cattle-guard, and when he saw the train, tried to get out of the way, but could not make it. No whistle was blown nor bell rung, although the killing took place near the crossing, and where the law requires signals to be given. In this connection it is proper to state that the law in regard to signals is but little regarded by railroad employees hereabouts. The failure of approaching trains to signal is a crime, and every offense of the kind ought to be taken notice of and punished. Some of the most dangerous crossings on the road are in Iron county, and yet we have seen trains pass them at full speed without signal of any kind. It's only through good fortune that no human lives have as yet been lost through this negligence, and every case ought to be promptly reported by those witnessing it, to the proper authorities.

A lady one day cleaning lamps, Was suddenly taken with cramps, She tried SMITH'S PAIN OIL.

Was relieved? I should smile, She would rather have Pain Oil than stamps. For sale by Dr. G. W. Farrar, Jr., Pilot Knob, Mo.

SURPRISE PARTY—At the residence of Mr. E. J. Langdon, about two miles southeast of Ironton, in honor of his daughter, Miss Hattie. About twenty of the young folks of the Valley participated in the pleasant affair; and games and music (both vocal and instrumental) added to the evening's enjoyment, until a late hour, when the guests were invited into the dining-room to do justice to an elegant repast. The table was laden with the delicacies of the season, and beautifully decorated with flowers. A large cake was voted to the most popular gentleman present, and Dr. W. C. Patton was declared the fortunate man. The guests departed after having spent a delightful evening—one long to be remembered by each one present.

On last Friday night, some parties went to the house of Mrs. Creshorn, who lives on the first farm below the silver mines, and forcibly entered the same, tied the old lady (who was all alone), and robbed the premises of $233.00 in gold and $1.00 in silver. Only one man entered the house, and he was masked; his companions remained outside. It is supposed some of the old lady's neighbors, who knew of her having this money, committed the robbery. Mrs. Creshorn describes the man who entered the house minutely, and it is thought she knows him, but dares not accuse him, he having threatened her life in case she divulged his name.

Owing to the rain, there was not a full attendance at the Clonian Monday night. The programme for next Monday evening is as follows: James H. Miller; Monmouth's Rebellion; Mrs. Gresson; Queen Anne, wife of James H. Miller; Lord Jeffries; Miss White; Whigs and Tories; Miss Katie Gresson; Poet Laureate Dryden, Mrs. Fairchild.

In Memoriam.

HALL OF VALLEY LODGE, No. 1870, K. of H., IRONTON, Mo., May 23, 1883.

At a regular meeting held this evening, the following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

Our worthy deceased brother, Isaac M. Stevens, departed this life May 11, 1883, aged 25 years, and was interred by this Lodge, according to the ritual of our order. In the prime of manhood, called from life's struggle to the peace of the tomb, may that rest be as sweet as his death was calm and peaceful.

This Lodge hereby expresses its profound sorrow at the loss it and the Brotherhood has sustained in the death of Bro. Stevens. Our kindly sympathy and sincere condolence is hereby tendered to his bereaved family, while we ourselves cherish fond recollections of his many virtues.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing, attested by the Reporter, under the seal of this Lodge, be forwarded to the family of the deceased, and a copy furnished the IRON COUNTY REGISTER for publication.

W. H. RYERS, } Committee.

W. Farrar, druggist, Pilot Knob, and get a bottle; he will present you with one dollar and sixty-five cents' worth of choice music, arranged for piano or cabinet organ. J. E. Simpson, Superintendent for Pilot Knob Company, returned Sunday from a trip East.

Parents would do well to disallow their boys to attend those Sunday base ball games that are becoming so frequent at Pilot Knob. They are far from elevating to the young.

A petition is in circulation here asking the County Court to disincorporate Pilot Knob. About three-fourths of the voters have signed it, and, one would judge, about nine-tenths of the tax-paying citizens. The people don't like the present administration of affairs.

The family of William A. Bebee, of Pilot Knob, were unexpectedly called to Irondale, Friday, to the burial of A. C. Babcock, son-in-law of Mr. Bebee. Mr. Babcock was in the employ of the St. L., I. M. & S. Ry. for a number of years, as operator; was stationed at Poplar Bluff some years; was also at Dexter and Bismark; and was known as one of the railroad's best men. For some time he has been at Dixon, on the A. & P. road, and was at the time of his death riding on the "local" to Jerome, when by some accident he and one of the train men were thrown from the car and both killed. The particulars have not all been learned yet. Mr. Babcock was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and child, with relatives and friends, to mourn his loss.
